RE: Minute Dairy Component in Citriboost and Incredivites

Dear Ms. Latham:

Please be advised that Shaklee Citriboost and Shaklee Incredivites certified by the Star-D as Kosher and Dairy through March 31, 2011 under the conditions specified in the letter of Kosher certification contain less than 1.6% of a Kosher Dairy ingredient. Because the Kosher/Dairy ingredient is used in such a minute amount, it is considered "batel" according to Jewish law. Therefore, these products may be eaten after meat.

Note: The Star-K has reviewed all pertinent information regarding these products.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Naphtali Burnstein
Director of Supervision
